II. Consent Agenda

A) Cross-listing of courses for CSU Area F

This cross-listing as ETH is required as an eligibility requirement for CSU Area F (in addition to eligibility requirements on the substance of the course). It has no impact on the discipline into which the course is placed for minimum qualifications purposes. The only difference between the ETH version of the course on the right and the existing course outline on the left is the designator.

- 2) SJS 20 Introduction to Social Justice as ETH-20
- 3) SJS 22 Introduction to Women's Studies as ETH-22

E) Action Items

Curriculum Guide:* The Chair will make a calendar of curriculum item training topics for the future meetings. It will be a standing item on our agenda and we'll ask members to sign up for topic. they will be responsible for providing training and leading discussion on the topic at a Curriculum Committee meeting. Presentations could be made available on the website for faculty to use when creating course revisions or new courses.

Cultural Curriculum Audit:* Some ideas were to

- invite faculty in disciplines with larger equity gaps,
- incorporate new faculty
- focus on metamajors as a way to organize participants

- use the Equity Rubric dimensions when evaluating course outline and proposing changes
 - ensure that faculty leave the retreat with a fully complete course revision proposal so that proposed improvements are translated from personal classroom strategies to Course Outline of Record where practical.
 - Partner with Senate, SSEC, O & A and sponsor Cultural Curriculum Audit using the Long Beach City College model.
 - Procure funding for facilitator and faculty stipends
- v. Curriculum 2021 Review: status update report
There are approximately 255 courses (our of ~720 active courses) that need review in 2021 in order to stay current. Email has gone out to faculty with the list of courses that need to be revised.
