4. STUDENTS' BASICE NEEDS- ERAP Presentation

Michele Peregrin/
Ana Ibarra-Castro

Michele Peregrin said there is work being done on the Department of Education grant for basic needs support. She asked to be informed about other resources.

Steve Crow asked if coordination is being done with student services and the grant they received for a basic needs center, which is a large state grant.

Michele said they are in the loop and Dr. Jalomo was invited to the kick off meeting.

Ana Ibarra-Castro, Project manager presented on the Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP).

The COVID-19 Pandemic presented significant challenges:

- Reduced work hours
- Loss of job
- Caring for a relative or child
- Pre-existing health conditions

HARTNELL COLLEGE VISION STATEMENT

Hartnell College will be nationally recognized for the success of our students by developing leaders who will contribute to the social, cultural, and economic vitality of our region and the global community.

HARTNELL COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Focusing on the needs of the Salinas Valley, Hartnell College provides educational opportunities for students to reach academic goals in an environment committed to student learning, achievement and success.

- Unable to find a job

The Emergency Rental Assistance Program (ERAP) was designed to help with these challenges in Monterey County. There is a large ag population which brought challenges related to child care as agriculture workers are considered essential.

There were issues with people being able to pay rent and utilities. In addition, students had extra challenges with completing studies in a timely and successful manner. ERAP was able to help out and roll out the program.

ERAP at a Glance:

- ERAP Team at Hartnell- Team of 7 (supervisor; manager; accountant; 4 intake specialists)
- Partner Organizations (Mujeres en Accion; COPA)
- Target Population (students; friends and family of students; general population)
- Funding (federal and state funds; United Way of Monterey County)
- Eligibility (income below 80% area median income; hardship related to COVID-19; live in Monterey County)

ERAP 1.0:

- 3.1M budgeted
- 2.8M in direct assistance
- 400+ families served
- March-December 2021

ERAP 2.0 (approval pending):

- 4.6M budgeted
- 4.0M in direct assistance
- December 21- September 22

Michele said this particular project is managed at the Hartnell College Foundation, not the College.

Steve Crow said the Foundation discussed at their last meeting whether or not to move forward with ERAP 2.0. That is being decided.

Cesar Velasquez asked out of the 400+ families served, how many were students.

Ana Ibarra said the data is being reviewed to solidify the numbers, but estimates 40-70% are the families and friends of students.

Ana Gonzalez requested flyers or information to share with the student population.

Ana Ibarra said she will forward. She also mentioned the program will continue whether or not the Foundation stays with it. Students can work with a different agency and possibly be put on a waiting list.

HARTNELL COLLEGE VISION STATEMENT

Hartnell College will be nationally recognized for the success of our students by developing leaders who will contribute to the social, cultural, and economic vitality of our region and the global community.

HARTNELL COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Focusing on the needs of the Salinas Valley, Hartnell College provides educational opportunities for students to reach academic goals in an environment committed to student learning, achievement and success.

Jackie Cruz said the staff will not stop promoting or taking on clients because ERAP has staff working through January. She is confident there will be a 2.0. There is going to be a procedural single audit and testing, which will be complete by the end of December.

Ana Ibarra offered to speak with members individually to discuss ways to find populations of students who may not reach out and have extra challenges in getting assistance.

Bronwyn thanked Ana, who has met with the office of equity programs twice.

Steve Crow received an email from chancellor's office regarding grants. Steve shared the current year funding of almost $1M for basic needs, which is different than ERAP. These funds are available this fiscal year but require a planning grant to be submitted in February. There is also a mental health grant for $200+ available this year to Hartnell. In addition, there is a student retention grant categorized as one time but there is over $500K available to Hartnell College.

Jackie Cruz asked if the planning grant triggers the rest of the funding?

Steve explained it establishes a basic needs center and the plan needs to be submitted to chancellor's office in February.

Jackie Cruz said the basic needs task force is launching and there is also a federal grant from the US Department of Education. The task force hopes to galvanize groups so efforts are not being duplicated. The US Department of Education grant asks for community partnerships, which is what the Foundation has with United Way.

Alicia Gregory said a plan and implementation needs to be done with basic outreach. She said, while there may not be a basic needs center, there are multiple areas that offer assistance. She suggested a guide or document which lists departments and what they offer. The grant does call for hiring a basic needs coordinator by July 1.

David Orta said a basic needs center makes sense and that it should be operated by a group of people that don't have other duties. There needs to be a dedicated coordinator.

Bronwyn Moreno pulled together student leaders that represent different areas on campus. This meeting provided rich feedback of student priorities (housing and food was big). The feedback on what the center looks like from the students is that it has a dedicated person, students wanted to know what the experience be like, and what kind of services should be provided. There will be additional student meeting to get more perspective. Dr. Jalomo is aware of the synergy between the grant and the state grant that is being pursued. There is a collaboration across divisions and departments that will need to be in line to meet deliverables and objectives.
