

HARTNELL COLLEGE

College Planning Council Highlights

The College Planning Council (CPC) held a meeting on Wednesday, December 4, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. in E-112 and during the meeting, the following occurred:

AB 705 Update

The CPC received an update on the implementation of AB 705 since fall 2019. A positive response has been received from the students; data will be available soon to see the level of increase and success rates.

Online CTE Pathways Grant

The CPC received a presentation on the CTE Pathways Grant, directly connected with Distance Education (DE). Hartnell was awarded a one-year grant to expand CTE DE offerings. The grant goals are to improve access, improve visibility, and improve quality.

Employee Engagement Survey Results

The results from the 2019 FA Employee Engagement Survey were presented to CPC. The consultant (Jill Christensen) identified four areas of opportunity and suggestions to improve employee engagement.

Agenda Template for Governance Councils

CPC agreed to move forward on sending the new agenda template to council co-chairs for dissemination and adoption. A letter was drafted with definitions and details as to why the template was changed.

Agendas, meeting materials, and minutes are posted online:
