CALL TO ORDER & INTRODUCTIONS   Romero Jalomo
   The council held a moment of silence for Selso Ruiz, Administrative Assistant to the Student Life
   Office. Dr. Jalomo would like to end the meeting in memory of Mr. Ruiz.

ACTION ITEMS

1.   Consider Approval of agenda   Tony Anderson
     Minutes approved without changes.

2.   Consider Approval of March 18, 2021 Minutes
     MOTIONED (Pullum), Seconded (Jimenez), minutes approved without changes.

3.   MESA Priority Registration Request   Joel Thompson/
                                                                 Mohammed Yahdi

Motioned (Moorhouse) Seconded (Pullum), Mr. Phillips concern is identifying the Mesa students in the registration process. Dr. Thompson stated there are about 350 students. He will work with the appropriate department to ensure the students are correctly identified. Dr. Yahdi stated he spoke to Dr. Ceja, Dean of Enrollment Services to discuss the process. Mr. Andserson has concerns in regards to granting priority registration to Mesa students as not many other student will be registering for the specific courses Mesa students require. Dr. Yahdi reminded that these students are 1st generation, low income students who require more support.

ACTION:
The council approved to grant Mesa students priority registration. The request will now be moved to the CPC for review and approval who will recommend to Dr. Rodriguez for final decision.

4.   AP4051: High School Articulation   Laurencia Walker
     Credit by exam applies to high school articulation which refers to the AP. The AP has been revised and reviewed by the Articulation committee to ensure it matches the larger AP as well as college practices and policies. AP exam is one form of credit by exam. The high school articulated course is stating this level of curriculum meets the college level curriculum. Historically the CTE course have been the only courses that have been articulated.

ACTION:
All approved without revisions.

INFORMATION/DISCUSSION/PRESENTATIONS

5.   Evaluation of Effectiveness of Governance Survey Results   Romero Jalomo
     The council would like feedback from CPC on items that were reviewed at our council to see the CPC decision.
