INFORMATION/DISCUSSION/PRESENTATIONS

3. Commencement Update

Augustine Nevarez

Mr. Nevarez shared the commencement website that contains all the information regarding the ceremony as well as information for graduates to obtain their regalia. There is also reminders for guests listed on what they can and cannot take. There are 33 valedictorians this year. The President's office will be hosting a reception for the valedictorians the week of commencement. He has sent out an email request to staff to assist in staffing the event. The commencement ceremony will be held on Friday, May 19 from 4-6pm at Rabobank Stadium.

4. Lactation Pod Proposal for HCCD

Mario Flores
Kayla Valentine

Ms. Valentine and Mr. Flores shared the presentation for the Mamava lactation pods. They are portable lactation pods that can be placed on campuses. The plan is to purchase three and place one in the library, the main lobby at the Castroville center, and the Soledad Center. They can be moved to other locations if needed.

5. Student Housing Option for Housing Insecure Students

Mario Flores

This housing proposal is not student housing, but rather emergency housing for students in transition to permanent housing. While students are in this housing, they will be connected with resources to categorical and support programs, career hub employment services, CalFresh, MediCal, shelters to more transitional/permanent housing. Students will also be provided resources to apply at the Housing Authority, financial literacy education, as well as mental health resources. The building has an onsite manager 24/7. There is an MST bus station located nearby.

6. SA Student Recognition Ceremonies

Romero Jalomo

Dr. Jalomo shared the Student Affairs Recognition Ceremonies with the council. The list is located on the council website for review.
